

The Footprint Game

Earn points by helping spread the word. Everybody who gains twenty-five or more points wins!

The most points get the first pick from the prize pile. I'll move down the list from most to least points to allow you to choose a prize. Everybody with at least twenty-five points will receive something cool!

Unlike the Hunger Games, this is just for fun! So please don't kill anyone.

The game start January 21st and ends on February 11th, 2026! To report your points, just send me an email!

Make sure to like/comment/share your fellow Release Team member's stuff, too. It's always more fun to do this with friends.

If you tag Alli, she'll see it and record your points. If you can't or don't tag her, make sure to tell her so that she can record it. (Keep track of your own points too, so we don't miss anything.)

What do you think the high score will be?

Alli reserves the right to change the game and make up rules as necessary, without notice.
